HOW TO CITE RULES AND RSMo

RULES—Cite material in the Missouri Register by volume and page number, for example, Vol. 28, Missouri Register, page 27. The approved short form of citation is 28 MoReg 27.

The rules are codified in the Code of State Regulations in this system—

Title	Code of State Regulations	Division	Chapter	Rule
1	CSR	10-	1.	010
Department		Agency, Division	General area regulated	Specific area regulated

They are properly cited by using the full citation , i.e., 1 CSR 10-1.010.

Each department of state government is assigned a title. Each agency or division within the department is assigned a division number. The agency then groups its rules into general subject matter areas called chapters and specific areas called rules. Within a rule, the first breakdown is called a section and is designated as (1). Subsection is (A) with further breakdown into paragraph 1., subparagraph A., part (I), subpart (a), item I. and subitem a.

RSMo—The most recent version of the statute containing the section number and the date.

Under this heading will appear the text of proposed rules and changes. The notice of proposed rulemaking is required to contain an explanation of any new rule or any change in an existing rule and the reasons therefor. This is set out in the Purpose section with each rule. Also required is a citation to the legal authority to make rules. This appears following the text of the rule, after the word "Authority."

Entirely new rules are printed without any special symbolology under the heading of the proposed rule. If an existing rule is to be amended or rescinded, it will have a heading of proposed amendment or proposed rescission. Rules which are proposed to be amended will have new matter printed in boldface type and matter to be deleted placed in brackets.

An important function of the Missouri Register is to solicit and encourage public participation in the rulemaking process. The law provides that for every proposed rule, amendment, or rescission there must be a notice that anyone may comment on the proposed action. This comment may take different forms.

If an agency is required by statute to hold a public hearing before making any new rules, then a Notice of Public Hearing will appear following the text of the rule. Hearing dates must be at least thirty (30) days after publication of the notice in the Missouri Register. If no hearing is planned or required, the agency must give a Notice to Submit Comments. This allows anyone to file statements in support of or in opposition to the proposed action with the agency within a specified time, no less than thirty (30) days after publication of the notice in the Missouri Register.

An agency may hold a public hearing on a rule even though not required by law to hold one. If an agency allows comments to be received following the hearing date, the close of comments date will be used as the beginning day in the ninety (90)-day-count necessary for the filing of the order of rulemaking.

If an agency decides to hold a public hearing after planning not to, it must withdraw the earlier notice and file a new notice of proposed rulemaking and schedule a hearing for a date not less than thirty (30) days from the date of publication of the new notice.

Proposed Amendment Text Reminder:

Boldface text indicates new matter.

[Bracketed text indicates matter being deleted.]

SUMMARY OF COMMENTS: One (1) comment was received from International Gamco, Inc. (Gamco).

COMMENT: Gamco requested the commission consider accepting electronic pull-tab and flare samples in lieu of paper samples. As society has increasingly accepted paperless documents, other state gaming regulatory agencies have correspondingly allowed the submission of electronic artwork (samples) for the product approval process. Gamco noted of the other state regulatory agencies that require preapproval of pull-tab games, most allow the submission of electronic artwork. Gamco recognized some of the benefits of allowing electronic submission and electronic approval by the agency to include increased efficiency, reducing waste of paper tickets and paper correspondence, reduced postage costs, ease of tracking submissions, no risk of losing paper samples en route, and the ability of charitable organizations to receive games quicker. Gamco stated the paper samples would still be available from the manufacturer for examination or review by the commission.

RESPONSE: The Charitable Games Division appreciates this suggestion and recognizes the possibilities presented with electronic samples. The division currently accepts electronic samples for game concepts; however, for quality control purposes actual flares, pull-tabs, and payout (profit) sheets are required to be submitted prior to final approval of any game. The division is not prepared to make changes to the process at this time. Consideration will be given to this request with future revisions to this rule. No changes will be made to the rule as a result of this comment.
